

film & television, media, broadcast, advertising and music industry personnel, your travel needs exceed that of the ordinary traveller - we understand that, and we have the track record to prove it.

Travel Beyond has unparalleled experience in dealing with the project management challenges inherent in entertainment, media and production travel.

Our Managing Director, Tim Lane has a long and successful track record of working with such specialised clients and has built an expert team available, personally, 24/7.

Travel Beyond is proud of its prestige client list and track record in entertainment, media and production travel including:

- Local and international media companies.
- Extensive list of international and Australian film & television production companies and features.
- Local and international advertising agencies and their TV departments.
- Music businesses and touring bands.

What you get when working with us:

- A specialist team available 24/7 that project manage your travel not just give you quotes.
- Dedicated "Entertainment" rates and route deals with all major airlines, hotels and car agencies
- Understanding the need for numerous changes to schedules.
- The spreadsheet reporting you require, supported by state-of-the art reporting tools.
- Online tools to support our personal service.
- Unique online planning tools and booking engine..

For more information contact:

Dave Price - Sales & Marketing Manager
Mob: 0413 849 720
dave@travelbeyond.com.au

